(For University Department and Colleges)

Objective of the Course:

In an era of information explosion, Journalism and Mass Communication is playing a vital role in spreading information and inducing change as well as in maintaining the system of society. To fulfill these goals systematic education of journalism and mass communication has become inevitable. BJMC is a carrier oriented course spread over six semesters (3 years). The objective of BJMC is to enable the students to understand the concept, scope and significance of mass communication and its techniques; to familiarize and train the students with media techniques by affording them an exposure to contemporary media skills and to provide an opportunity to pursue their areas of interest in this educational stream to go for a career.

General Rules:

1. The whole programme is divided into six semesters (Three Years). There will be four papers in Ist, IInd, IIIrd, IVth & Vth semester along with a practical-viva related to the course of each semester. Each paper will carry 100 marks, out of which an external examination will be held carrying 75 marks, as internal assessment 25 marks and course related practical-viva (M.M. 100) will be conducted by external examiner.
2. There shall be 20 theory papers spread over five semesters. Course related practical-viva in each semester. The six semester shall be devoted to Print Media Practical-viva, Radio Practical-viva, TV Practical-viva, New Media Practical-viva & Project-viva as described in the syllabus details and will be examined by a board of examiners consisting of one external and one internal examiner. The examination of each practical shall be held towards the end of each semester. Grand total of the marks for the course (BJMC) will 3000.

Note:

1. Admission rules remain the same as per G.O. and University rules.
2. In BJMC Course –II, Course- XVII and Course – XXIV are related with New Media Technology so the essential qualification for teaching these courses must be MCA and Post Graduate in Journalism.
